Increase Membership Types

Core Members

National church-based training organisations which fulfil the following criteria:

- Their work is nationally owned and led
- Their training programme is ongoing, systematic and Bible-based
- They use active learning methods and interactive learning with others
- Their programme is rooted in the local context and the local church
- They serve in 'greater Asia' or among its peoples worldwide.

Each Core Member organisation names up to two representatives in their organisation to act as their link with Increase and participate in Increase decision-making.

Individual Members

Individuals who have particular expertise in church-based training and related disciplines, which they use in support of Core Members and similar organisations.

Fellowship Members

Other organisations with a significant interest and affinity to church-based training movements, including organisations led and owned outside 'greater Asia'. Each Fellowship Member organisation names a representative in their organisation to act as their link with Increase.

Individual Christians who want to support or promote Increase's work, but who do not meet all the membership criteria, may become Friends of Increase. They are not formal members but receive newsletters and are encouraged to contribute through prayer, time or donations.
